Prayer Requests:

- Travel during holiday for staff and family
- Native Rally and follow up

...In these last days has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world. - Hebrews 1:2

Jesus did not come into the world as a triumphant king who overwhelmed his enemies, but as a defenseless child that needed human parents. The glory of God does not always manifest in powerful, spiritual experiences, but also in humble moments of weakness. The same power that created the whole universe is also present with you in the midst of struggles and sickness. Jesus is Immanuel, with us in every moment of victory and trial. What a gift we have in the presence of Jesus!

We just held our Native Rally, December 3rd, with Native Peoples from all over Alaska, coming together to celebrate the fellowship of Jesus. It is such a necessary event, especially during the winter months, where it is cold and dark, and the villages are separated by difficult travel. Robert and Eleanor Roehl shared encouraging messages at the Rally and also at Golden Heart Church. The messages Praise God this facility is available again for spiritual purposes. YWAM and FCM help sponsor these type of events and we often host the speakers and helpers that come to the Fairbanks area.

We are already experiencing negative temperatures and significant snowfall.

I will be traveling to Texas to be with my children and grandchildren from December 13th through December 30th. It will be wonderful to see them again in person. It is not easy being a grandmother who lives almost four thousand miles away! May the Lord's presence be with you this Christmas and may your families experience His peace that surpasses our understanding.

and music were broadcast all over Alaska and Canada by KJNP, so that those who could not come could share the experience. We also shared a meal before the meeting. The picture above is located at Chief David Salmon Tribal Hall, which we had not been able to use since Covid began.

Merry Christmas,
