Now He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ought to pray and not to lose heart, - Luke 18:1

This is the beginning of a parable on prayer that Jesus taught. It concerns an unjust judge and a widow that repeatedly looked for justice from that judge. Because she kept enduring in her request for justice, the unjust judge relented and gave it to her. Jesus points out that our heavenly Father is a JUST judge and will bring justice for His elect. We must pray at ALL times and not lose heart.

A lady that attends our Thursday night prayer meetings at the YWAM base, asked for prayer concerning cataracts in her eyes. She needed to take an eye test to renew her driver’s license and was afraid that she would not pass and not be able to drive. She had been praying concerning the problem with her eyes for the last two years. After we prayed, she went back to the eye doctor to have them checked again as she felt that she had been healed. When the doctor looked at her eyes he looked puzzled, so she asked him what he saw. He said, he did not know what happened, but the cataracts were gone. He had never seen this happen without surgery. She went and took the drivers test and passed. She is still praising God in church, as she believed she wouldn’t be able to drive anymore. We know that God still heals and miracles happen. It is tempting to give up on a situation or a person. God is faithful and our heavenly Father loves us and will empower us to accomplish His will in our lives.

Prayer Requests:

- Renewed Vision and Preparing for Outreaches
- Protection for health and workers

The picture is of the snow on my arctic entrance to my house. I had four foot of snow on my entrance and on my garage, which can block me in when it falls off the roof. I had to hire a crew to remove the snow from my entrance and from the garage where I store my vehicle. It is one of those expenses, like snow plowing, that you deal with living in Alaska. They actually gave me discounted rate of $200, since I was a widow — usually double that rate. God blesses in many ways

We have a major prayer request for Golden Heart Church. As you know, we used to meet in the David Salmon Tribal Hall. We served meals before the service for the people who lived in downtown Fairbanks, some were homeless. Ever since the beginning of Covid in 2020, we have not had access to this facility. We have been meeting at Born Again Believers Church, which is a great blessing, but not near as large or with the kitchen facilities of the Tribal Hall. We are believing that we will have access to those facilities again, since it is for the Native Peoples’ of Interior Alaska, or that God would provide something better in the downtown area where there are so many people that need ministry. Please believe with us and thank you so much for all your support and prayer — Endure in prayer!
