"He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me; and he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will disclose Myself to him." - John 14:21

Every believer desires to be led by the Spirit and demonstrate their love for God. We say we want to know God more, and the simplest way to do that is to keep the commandments He has already revealed in the Gospels. All of Jesus' life — birth, ministry, death, resurrection and ascension are the entirety of the Good News (Gospel) of His message. To really know Him more, we need to obey the obvious commands He has already given: repentance, forgiveness, giving, enduring prayer, evangelism, healing, being the salt and light, loving your enemies, and so many more. We can't receive specific direction in our life, until we can obey the general commands of the Gospel.

Testimony: A man we recently prayed for is a new brother in Christ. Last month, a man named John came to church intoxicated. He went up front and held hands with us in pre-worship prayer. He asked Christ into His life and the next morning when he woke up, he said he had no desire to drink — it was gone! Prior to that he had told his friend in another part of Alaska he wanted to be free from alcohol addiction. He started walking in desperation for six days until he came to Fairbanks. He was led to our church at Golden Heart Fellowship. John is a man with a new heart!

We had to have new pump and pipe replaced on our water well at FCM property. A brother in the Lord has a well service and gave us the pump at his cost. Even with his help it cost around $3000 to repair. We had been having problems with the water for a while, so it was good to find the problem. God always brings people our way to help us.

Family News: My granddaughter, Destiny Hisaw, graduated from Port Aransas High School with honors on May 25.

Right, is a picture of her with her sister Alexia and brothers Xavier and Connor. She will be attending Texas State in the fall majoring in outdoor recreation.

Please be in prayer for the summer season, as June through September are usually the busiest outreach months with the best weather. Believe the Gospel and keep the commandments of Jesus to demonstrate your love.
