But we request of you, brethren, that you appreciate those who diligently labor among you, and have charge over you in the Lord and give you instruction, and that you esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Live in peace with one another. (1 Thessalonians 5:12-13)

Do we really appreciate those who labor among us for the sake of the Gospel? — Those who have left family and home to come, even to Interior Alaska! We, at YWAM Fairbanks, do appreciate YWAM Tyler, Texas, for sending up a team so willing to get their hands dirty and love with open hearts the peoples of Interior Alaska. They are doing street ministry, local church services, outreach to Native villages, and also helping to organize and repair YWAM Fairbanks and FCM facilities. What a blessing they have been and we look forward to the teams to come. One major project they helped us with was moving a 40-foot container that Pastor Dale Thurlby had bought for storage before he passed away. A local brother in Christ and friend of YWAM, brought his bulldozer and with the team’s help were able to move it to FCM. With a new street feeding ministry we definitely needed the space and in the winter it can be a freezer as well! We have several more teams coming in the summer months and we know that God will use them greatly. We are also participating in several revivals in cooperation with Mountain Movers and Golden Heart Churches (both Native fellowships). We are believing God for a mighty outpouring that will make a real impact in Fairbanks. Many who come are short-term volunteers and we are still praying for those who will commit through the winter months so that our long-term discipleship programs can operate year-round. This is one of our greatest needs, and God will raise them up — this is our confession of faith!
